Materials You'll Need

- Felt sheets in various colors: navy blue, white, red, yellow
- Fabric scissors
- Sewing needle
- Thread in matching colors
- Black beads for eyes
- Fiberfill stuffing
- Fabric glue or hot glue gun
- Toothpicks
- Optional: embroidery thread or floss for details

Step-by-Step Instructions for the Felt Shark

Creating the Body

1. Cut out two identical shark-shaped pieces from navy blue felt.
2. Sew the two pieces together around the edges, leaving a small opening for stuffing.
3. Turn the shark body right side out and stuff it with fiberfill.
4. Sew the opening closed.

Adding the Fins

1. Cut out four triangular fins from navy blue felt: two dorsal fins and two pectoral fins.
2. Sew each fin to the corresponding spot on the shark's body.

Creating the Mouth and Eyes

1. Cut out a U-shaped mouth from white felt and sew it onto the front of the shark.
2. Sew two black beads for the eyes.

Adding Details

1. Use yellow felt to cut out small circles for the nostrils.
2. Use red felt to cut out a triangular shape for the gills.
3. Use fabric glue or a hot glue gun to adhere the nostrils and gills to the shark's body.
4. If desired, use embroidery thread to add details such as teeth or stripes.

Expanding Your Collection: Crafting Other Sea Creatures

Explore the wonders of the ocean and create an array of charming felt sea creatures.

Felt Clownfish

1. Cut out two fish-shaped pieces from orange felt.
2. Sew the two pieces together, leaving the top open.

3. Turn the clownfish right side out and stuff it lightly.
4. Sew the top opening closed.
5. Cut out a small piece of white felt for the belly and sew it onto the fish.
6. Sew on two black beads for the eyes.
7. Use black fabric paint to draw on the stripes.

Felt Seahorse

1. Cut out a long, curved piece from yellow felt for the body and a smaller, curved piece for the head.
2. Sew the head and body together at the neck.
3. Cut out two small pieces of felt for the eyes and sew them onto the head.
4. Cut out three narrow strips of felt for the fins and sew them to the body.
5. Fill the seahorse with fiberfill and sew up the opening.

Felt Jellyfish

1. Cut out a circle from light blue felt for the body.
2. Cut out several long, thin strips of felt in different colors for the tentacles.
3. Sew the tentacles to the edge of the circle.
4. Cut out a small piece of white felt for the head and sew it to the top of the body.
5. Embroider two small eyes on the head.

Tips and Tricks

- Use sharp scissors to ensure clean and precise cuts.
- Sew with small, even stitches for a secure and professional-looking finish.
- Stuff the creatures firmly but not too tightly, as this can make them stiff.
- Experiment with different colors and patterns to create unique and personalized sea creatures.
- Add additional embellishments such as sequins, beads, or embroidery for extra flair.

Embark on an enchanting journey into the realm of felt couture! By following these step-by-step instructions and unleashing your creativity, you can create a captivating collection of felt sea creatures that will bring joy and wonder to your home. Whether you're a seasoned crafter or a beginner seeking a fun and rewarding project, these charming creatures are sure to captivate the hearts of all who encounter them.
