

Easy Dixieland Tunes Cello Bassoon Piano Piano Parts

Dixieland jazz is a lively and upbeat style of jazz that originated in New Orleans in the early 1900s. It is characterized by its strong rhythms, catchy melodies, and improvisational solos. Dixieland jazz is often played by a small ensemble of instruments, including the trumpet, clarinet, trombone, and drums. However, it can also be played by other instruments, such as the cello, bassoon, and piano.
