Sword Song: The Battle for London

By Bernard Cornwell

In the tumultuous era of 10th-century Anglo-Saxon England, a young warrior named Uhtred finds himself at the heart of a bloody conflict that will shape the destiny of his people.

As the forces of the ruthless Viking warlord, Sigtryggr, descend upon the kingdom of Wessex, Uhtred must confront his own divided loyalties. Torn between his desire for vengeance and his duty to his Saxon overlord, he embarks on a perilous journey that will test his courage, his faith, and the very fabric of his world.

With vivid prose and an unwavering eye for historical detail, Bernard Cornwell transports readers to a time of brutal battles, political intrigue, and unwavering loyalty. Sword Song: The Battle for London is an epic tale that will captivate readers from beginning to end.
