The MYP Language and Literature curriculum is structured around three main concepts: communication, culture, and creativity. Through the exploration of these concepts, students engage with a wide range of literary texts, including novels, plays, poems, and short stories, from diverse cultural backgrounds.

The IB MYP Language and Literature subject group is divided into two strands: Language Acquisition and Literature. Language Acquisition focuses on developing students' proficiency in a chosen language, while Literature emphasizes the analysis and interpretation of literary texts.

Assessment in IB MYP Language and Literature

Assessment in IB MYP Language and Literature plays a crucial role in evaluating students' understanding and skills. The assessment framework consists of both internal and external components.

Internal Assessment

- Language Portfolio: Students create a portfolio of written and oral work that demonstrates their language development and communication skills.
- Literature Commentary: Students analyze and interpret a literary text, demonstrating their understanding of its structure, language, and themes.
- Creative Writing: Students produce original written work, showcasing their creativity and command of language.

External Assessment

- Language Paper 1: A written exam that tests students' reading comprehension, vocabulary, grammar, and writing skills.
- Language Paper 2: A written exam that focuses on students' listening, speaking, and oral interaction skills.
- Literature Paper 1: A written exam that assesses students' understanding and analysis of literary texts.
- Literature Paper 2: A written exam that tests students' ability to compare and contrast literary texts across cultures.

Resources for IB MYP Language and Literature

There are numerous resources available to support students and educators in the teaching and learning of IB MYP Language and Literature. These resources include:

- IB MYP Curriculum Guide: The official document outlining the curriculum, assessment criteria, and teaching resources for IB MYP Language and Literature.
- MYP Assessment Support Materials: Materials provided by the IB to support teachers in assessing students' work.
- IB MYP Online Community: An online platform where teachers and students can connect, share resources, and seek support.
- Textbooks and Workbooks: A variety of textbooks and workbooks tailored specifically to the IB MYP Language and Literature curriculum.
- Online Resources: Websites and databases that provide access to literary texts, articles, and teaching materials.

Language and Literature for the IB MYP is an engaging and rewarding subject area that fosters students' communication, analytical, and literary skills. Through the exploration of diverse literary texts and cultures, students develop a deeper appreciation for the power of language and its role in shaping our understanding of the world.

With its rigorous curriculum, comprehensive assessment system, and abundance of resources, the IB MYP Language and Literature program provides students with the necessary tools and support to excel in their language and literary studies and become lifelong learners and communicators.
