Chapter 1: The Nightmare Unfolds

On the morning of October 24, 2009, Kristine dropped off her two daughters at school. She returned home and began her daily routine. At around 9:30 AM, Mike left for work. Kristine was alone in the house.

In the face of unimaginable grief and uncertainty, Mike Sibley refused to give up hope. He dedicated himself to finding Kristine and bringing her home to their children.

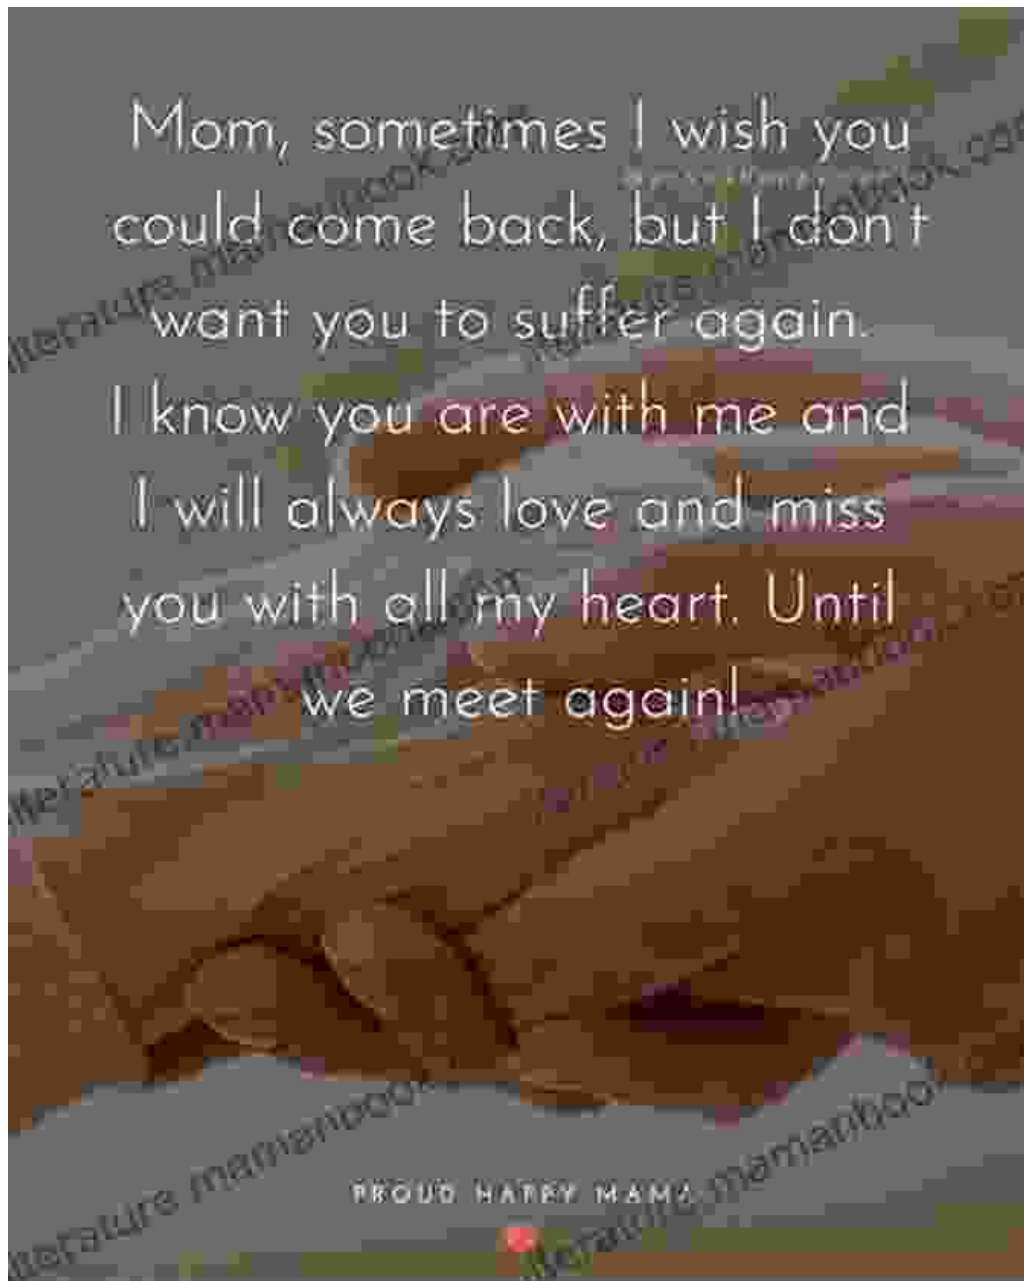

Mike became an advocate for other missing persons cases, raising awareness and providing support to families affected by tragedy. He founded the Kristine Sibley Foundation, a nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting families of missing loved ones.
