Here are ten cities where the past is present:

1. Rome, Italy

Rome is a city with a history that spans over 2,500 years. From the ruins of the Roman Forum to the grandeur of the Colosseum, the city is a living testament to the power and glory of the ancient Roman Empire. But Rome is not just a city of ruins. It is also a vibrant modern metropolis with a thriving arts and culture scene.

2. Athens, Greece
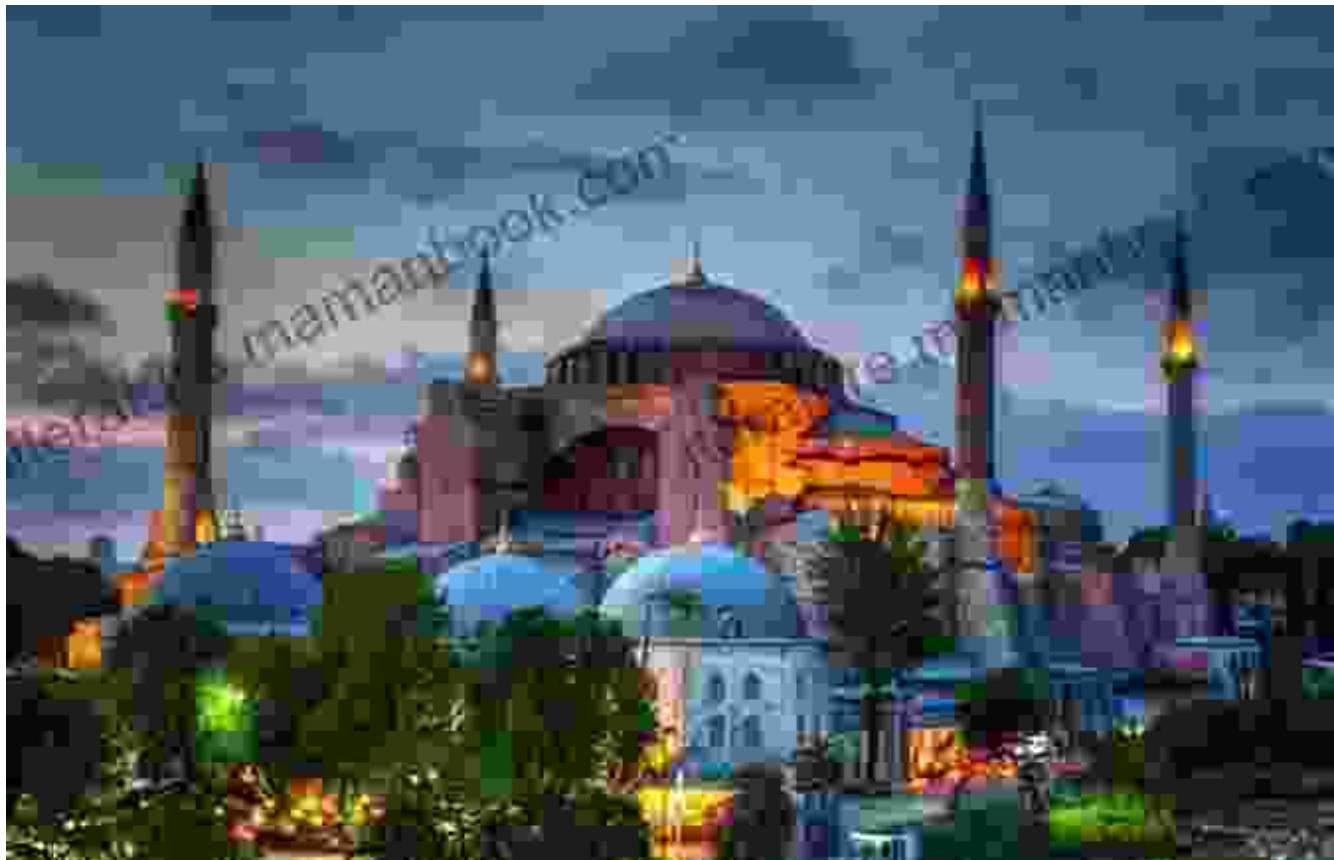

Athens is another city with a long and illustrious history. The birthplace of democracy, Athens was once home to some of the greatest minds in history, including Socrates, Plato, and Aristotle. Today, the city is a bustling metropolis with a rich cultural heritage. Visitors can explore the ruins of the ancient Acropolis, visit the world-renowned Acropolis Museum, or simply wander through the charming streets of the Plaka district.

3. Jerusalem, Israel

Jerusalem is a city holy to three major religions: Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. The city is home to some of the most important religious sites in the world, including the Western Wall, the Church of the Holy Sepulchre, and the Dome of the Rock. Jerusalem is also a city with a rich cultural heritage. Visitors can explore the Old City, visit the Israel Museum, or simply wander through the vibrant streets of the Mahane Yehuda Market.

4. Istanbul, Turkey
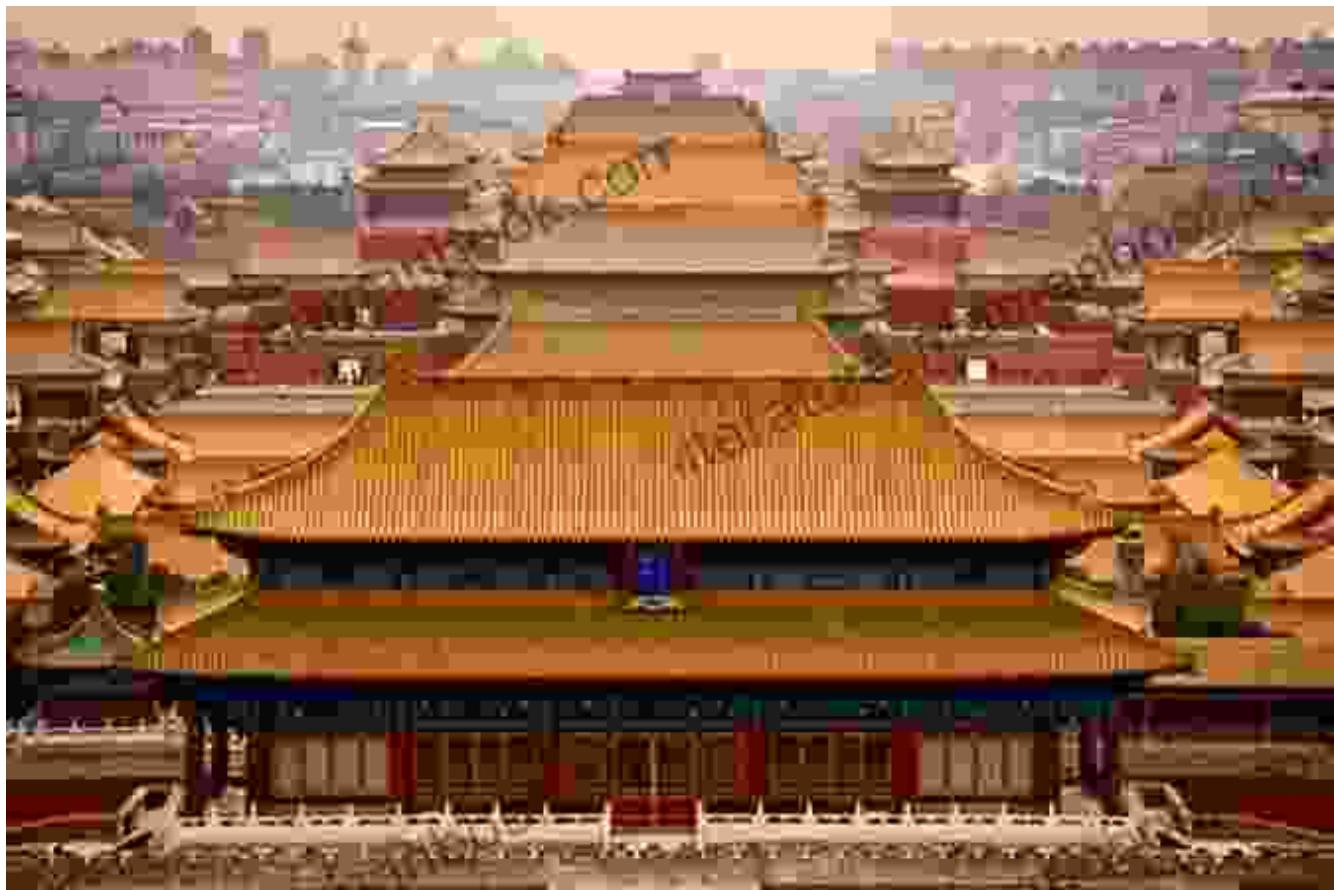

Istanbul is a city that straddles two continents, Europe and Asia. The city was once the capital of the Byzantine and Ottoman Empires, and its rich history is reflected in its architecture and culture. Visitors can explore the Hagia Sophia, the Blue Mosque, the Topkapi Palace, or simply wander through the bustling streets of the Grand Bazaar.

5. Cairo, Egypt

Cairo is a city that is synonymous with ancient Egypt. The city is home to some of the most iconic monuments in the world, including the Great Pyramids of Giza, the Sphinx, and the Egyptian Museum. But Cairo is also a modern metropolis with a vibrant arts and culture scene. Visitors can explore the Khan el-Khalili bazaar, visit the Museum of Islamic Art, or simply wander through the bustling streets of the city center.

6. Beijing, China

Beijing is the capital of China and one of the oldest cities in the world. The city is home to some of the most important historical sites in China, including the Forbidden City, the Great Wall of China, and the Temple of Heaven. But Beijing is also a modern metropolis with a thriving arts and culture scene. Visitors can explore the 798 Art District, visit the National Museum of China, or simply wander through the bustling streets of the city center.

7. Kyoto, Japan

Kyoto is a city with a rich cultural heritage. The city was once the capital of Japan, and its many temples, shrines, and gardens are a testament to its long and illustrious history. Visitors can explore the Kiyomizu-dera Temple, visit the Fushimi Inari Shrine, or simply wander through the charming streets of the Gion district.

8. Cusco, Peru
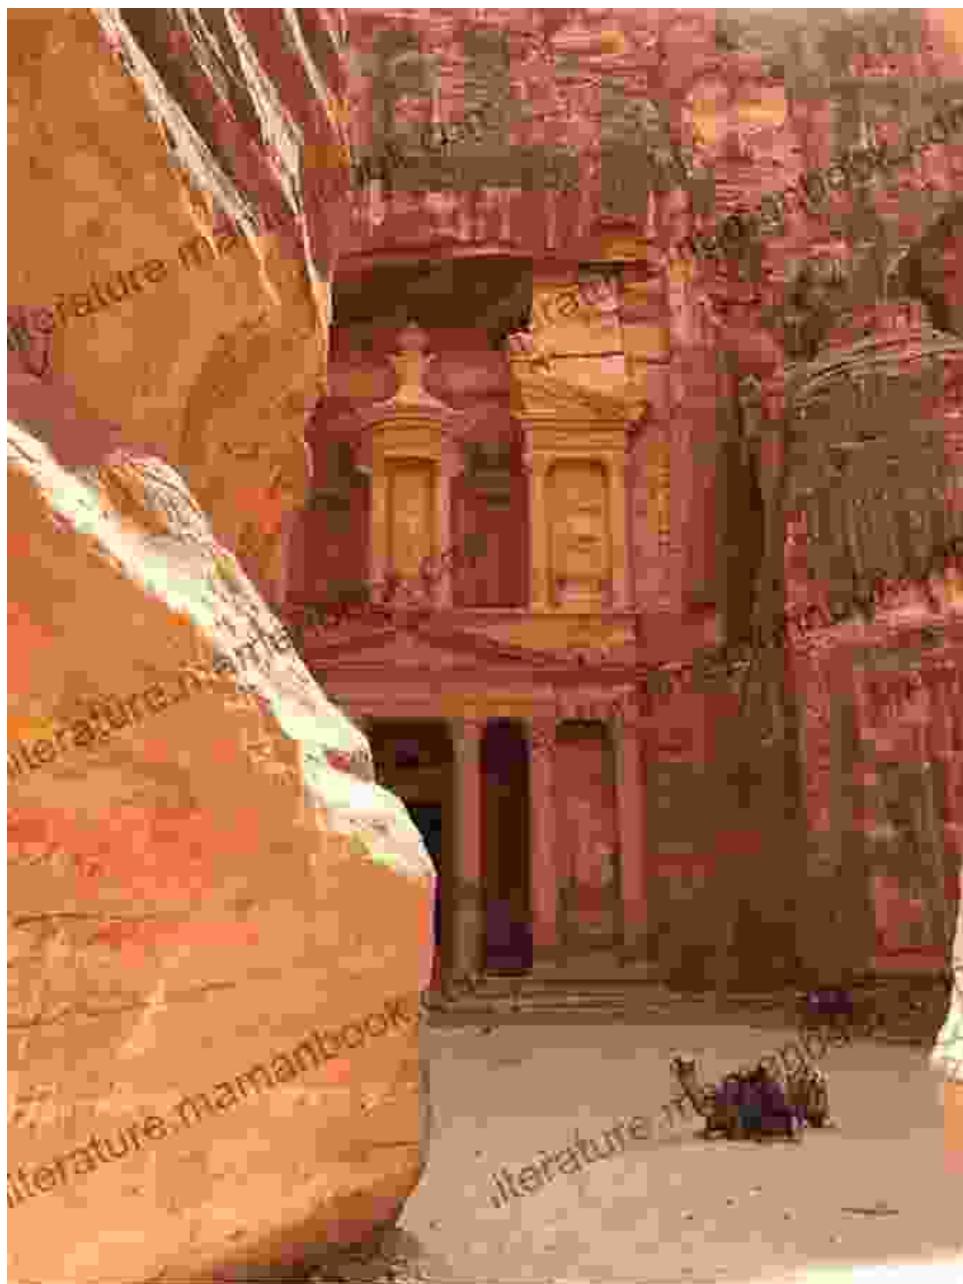

Cusco is a city in the Peruvian Andes that was once the capital of the Inca Empire. The city is home to some of the most important Inca ruins in the world, including the ruins of Machu Picchu. Cusco is also a vibrant modern city with a rich cultural heritage. Visitors can explore the San Pedro Market, visit the Cusco Cathedral, or simply wander through the bustling streets of the city center.

9. Angkor, Cambodia
